 DATE

REQUEST TO EXTEND SURRENDER DATE

COMES NOW, the defendant, Darren Macklin, by and through counsel and respectfully requests this Honorable Court grant him a 60 day extension on his date to report to the Federal Bureau of Prisons. The defendant is currently ordered to report on September 6, 2005. The defendant would show, for good cause, the following;

1. The defendant has not had sufficient time since his sentencing date to adequately prepare his family and his financial situation for the extensive period of time that he will be away serving his sentence.
2. The defendant recently started treatment in a depression clinical trial (see attached) and, based on the defendant's history, this trial should be extremely beneficial to the defendant and his future mental health.
3. The Assistant United States Attorney, Mr. Steve Parker, has no objection to the extension of the surrender date for sixty days. He further indicated that he would be opposed to an extension any further out than sixty days.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, counsel respectfully requests that the defendants date to surrender to the Federal Bureau of Prisons be extended for a sixty day period of time.

Respectfully Submitted:
